House Approves Annual Sessions

Expect Senate To Throw Out 4-Year Terms

Defeat Plans to Appoint Auditor, Lower Voting Age

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — Senate leaders and administration spokesmen today predicted the Senate will throw out a provision for four-year terms for state representatives which was included in a House-approved plan for annual legislative sessions.

The House approved the proposed constitutional amendment for annual sessions and four-year representative terms Tuesday, but defeated other proposed amendments for appointment rather than election of the state auditor and lowering the voting age to 18.

Defeat of the amendment for appointment of the auditor by the governor was a rebuff to Gov. William G. Stratton who had urged its approval as a key part of his Hodge scandal reform program.

The annual sessions amendment, which includes the four-year terms for House members, has still to be approved by the Senate and it can be changed in that body.

Both houses of the Legislature must approve the amendment if it is to be submitted to the voters in 1958.

See Senate Defeat

Stratton had opposed inclusion of the four-year term provision in the annual sessions amendment, which he supported in his inaugural address, on grounds voters should have a chance to decide the two issues separately.

As the amendment cleared the House, voters in 1958 would have to approve four-year terms, instead of the present two, if they wanted to vote for annual legislative sessions.

However, Senate leaders and Stratton's top legislative lieutenants said there was no chance the Senate would approve the four-year terms for House members.

Under the annual sessions amendment, approved by a vote of 126-43, the Legislature would hold its traditional six month session in odd-numbered years and meet on budget and finance matters only for 50 days in even-numbered years.

Rep. Albert W. Hachmeister (R-Chicago) opposed the four-year term proposal and said it would deprive the voters of "their right to call a halt or check on their representatives."

18-Year-Old Vote Fails

The amendment calling for appointment of the state auditor got only 92 favorable votes with 118 needed for approval, and was virtually killed although sponsors delayed announcement of the vote for a possible new try at passage.

The 18-year-old vote amendment got only 105 votes of the 118 needed for approval.

This also had been urged by Stratton in his inaugural address, but he has not pushed for it in the Legislature.

The House also killed by wide margins two Democratic proposals for constitutional amendments — one to switch state elections to non-presidential years to prevent "coattail riding" on the national ticket, and another to give Chicago and Cook County a bigger voice in any future constitutional convention.

Bill to Abolish Death Penalty in Illinois Defeated by Senate, 41-11

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — The Senate today voted smashing defeat for a bill to abolish the death penalty in Illinois.

The measure had passed the House, 111-16, but it was able to muster only 11 favorable votes in the Senate with 41 required for passage. There were 41 votes against the bill and 4 present votes.

Sen. Fred J. Smith (D-Chicago), who led the fight for the bill, said the death penalty was "a throwback to the Dark Ages" and that the bill was "not designed to coddle murderers and kidnappers."

The bill had won the support of State Prison Warden Joseph E. Ragen, Ross Randolph and James Denney.

It also had the support of Cook County Sheriff Joseph Lohman and chaplains from the Cook County jail and Joliet State Prison.

The measure had been amended to allow the death sentence still to be imposed on long term prisoners who commit murder in prison.

The amendment was based on

Hurricane Audrey Heading Toward Texas-Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS (UP) — The season's first hurricane, a "full-grown lady" named Audrey, headed toward the Texas-Louisiana coast today carrying 100 m.p.h. winds.

The latest advisory placed the fast-growing bus moving storm at less than 500 miles southwest of New Orleans and about 300 miles south of Brownsville, Tex. Gales extended 125 miles from the center.

The Louisiana coast appeared to be the most likely spot for it to reach the mainland, but Texas remained alerted.

The New Orleans Weather Bureau said high tides and rough seas were expected along the coast today. Ships were warned to remain in port.

Turnabout Vote, 165-3

House Approves Judicial Reform Bill

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—Final legislative acceptance of a judicial reform plan was considered a cinch today in the wake of a turn-about vote of approval by the House.

Senate leaders predicted an agreement would be worked out quickly on House amendments to the judicial reform plan and the amendments would be accepted by the Senate, paving the way for submission of a judicial reform amendment to the state constitution to the voters in November, 1958.

The House overwhelmingly approved the judicial reform plan by a 165-3 vote late Tuesday, hours after it had refused by a narrow margin to approve the same proposal.

On the second attempt at passage of the judicial reform plan, it took the House only 15 minutes to vote approval of the plan which was able to muster only 107 votes the first time around.

Judicial reform failed to get past either house of the Legislature in the past two sessions. It had been tagged this session by Gov. William G. Stratton as the top item in his program for constitutional change.

Amendments to Plan
The plan now before the Legislature, however, would leave up to a future General Assembly

Nothing to Get Excited About, Father, 84, Says

WASHINGTON (UP) — Fatherhood at 84 is nothing to get excited about, according to an 84-year-old father.

"I'm not a celebrity and I don't want to be one," he protested to newsmen.

The modest octogenarian is James M. Pickens, Somerset, Md., whose 44-year-old French wife gave birth to a 6-pound 8-ounce daughter at a hospital here last Thursday.

Pickens, who had one daughter by a previous marriage, was a mere 81 when he made his second venture into matrimony.

Gaskins Appeals Priority for Building Claims

A judgment filed earlier this month setting the priority of claims of persons owed money in the construction of the factory building partly completed by Irving I. Hudes has been appealed by one of the principals.

Atty. Don Scott announced today that Edward Gaskins, doing business as the Gaskins Lumber Co., which furnished considerable materials, has filed notice of appeal of the decision through Atty. Scott and the Springfield law firm, Giffen, Winning, Linder and Newkirk, attorneys for the Lumber Dealers association.

Circuit Judge Clarence E. Wright signed the order fixing the priority of claims, which decreed that the property be sold by a master of chancery at public sale and that the proceeds be applied in the following order:

1. All costs of sale.
2. Claims for labor.
3. Claims for material furnished prior to filing date of a mortgage to the Bank of Marion.
4. $6,000 on the $10,000 mortgage of Hudes to the Bank of Marion.
5. Balance of claims for materials furnished after filing date of mortgage, if any money left.
6. Balance due on mortgage, if anything left.

In appealing the judgment, Gaskins' attorneys are asking that the circuit judge's decision be reversed and remanded to the circuit court, on the contention that the priority of claims should not have been fixed in relation to the filing date of the Marion mortgage. It contends all material and labor claims should share proportionately in the proceeds of the sale and that they should come first as they are superior to any mortgage, that certain subrogation rights given the Bank of Marion are invalid.

Junior Police

Tag Day Saturday

Next Saturday will be "Junior Police Tag Day" in Harrisburg. Eddie Wise, who is both local and national chief of Junior Police, appealed to the public for moral and financial support of the Junior Police work.

In announcing the date, Chief Wise stressed the fact that the spring and fall tag sales are the primary sources of income for operating funds for the JP department, and suggested that Harrisburg area residents get solidly behind the organization, and give community-wide support to the boys who are ever ready to serve the community.

Eddie said the Junior Police department is designed "to combat juvenile delinquency, to promote safety, and to provide trained juvenile groups for community service."

Police Recover Suitcase Lost by West Frankfort Youth

A suitcase belonging to Keith Pharis, West Frankfort high school youth, which bounced out of his car in Harrisburg, has been recovered by city police.

Young Pharis' car broke down and he called his uncle, Kenneth Keith of Harrisburg, to tow him in. As the car was being pulled over the railroad tracks on East Sloan street the car trunk flew up and the suitcase fell out.

Police Chief Ross Lane said the suitcase was recovered from the person who had found it.

Wife to Stand By Her Husband After Berserk Shooting Rampage

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (UP) — Mrs. Dorothy Whitaker, whose husband shot and killed his ex-wife and son, said today she would stand by her wife-swapping husband because he was "fighting for what he thought was right."

Thomas Whitaker, 39, a truck driver, went on a berserk shooting rampage Tuesday after brooding for two days over the "grief" he suffered in the wife trade.

He fought a gun duel with his ex-wife's husband, Stewart Martin, 40, in the early morning darkness, crippling him with a shotgun blast in the leg.

Harrisburg Man, Two Girls Held In County Jail

Audie Parks, 36, and two girl companions are being held in the Saline county jail, Parks on an information charging him with assault with a deadly weapon and the two girls for questioning.

The three were picked up at Eldorado yesterday.

Parks, of Harrisburg, is charged with assaulting Robert V. Cole by striking him across the face with a beer bottle on a gravel road about 3 a. m. Tuesday.

Parks a little over a year ago was released from Menard penitentiary, where he was sentenced in 1942 for armed robbery. Sheriff William T. Barrett said he learned that Parks is out on bond after pleading innocent to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon at Bloomington, Ill.

Suspect Claims He Was Forced to Help in Holdup

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. (UP) — A suspect in the $700 robbery of a Kroger food store here claimed he was forced at gunpoint to participate in the crime.

Police Tuesday captured Ronald Lambert, 22, New Albany, Ind., who said he was on his way to surrender.

The suspect said Dave Wells, 40, made him drive the get-away car. They ran the car into a ditch south-west of town, divided the money and separated, Lambert said.

Lambert was picked up later with $403 in his pocket

Renews Plea for Restraint by Business, Labor

President Says Action Would Be Socialistic

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower said today he vigorously opposes price and wage controls as a means of combating inflationary pressures.

Eisenhower renewed an appeal to business and labor leaders to show extreme restraint in price and wage increases.

He told his news conference that corporation directors should put price increases into effect only if they are absolutely necessary.

Labor leaders, he said, should restrict their demands for wage increases to corresponding increases in the productivity of individual workers or to cases where workers are suffering extreme hardships as to their pay.

Controls Lead to Socialism

The president said that if management and labor do not show such statesmanship then we would make come true a recent prediction of Communist boss Nikita Khrushchev.

The President apparently referred to Khrushchev's prediction and recent televised interview that the United States would eventually become a socialistic country.

Without identifying Khrushchev by name, the President said the Communist chief is certainly not any friend of ours. He said he himself was not going to take any part in turning the country socialistic. He said wage and price controls would be a step in that direction.

In other news conference highlights, Eisenhower:

— Said there are not any plans now for a reduction of U. S. military forces abroad at any place other than Japan.

— Said there also are not any plans to ask Congress to change the atomic energy law to permit giving Britain nuclear weapons.

Defends Supreme Court

— Said leading atomic scientists have told him that with four or five more years of testing they are confident they can produce a hydrogen bomb absolutely clean of radioactive fallout. But he said the administration will not go back on its offer to suspend tests of nuclear weapons as a first step toward disarmament. He also said that scientists want to continue the tests necessary to get the most out of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes.

— Said that one section in the report of a special commission on government employee security caused him to raise his eyebrows. The recommendation called for transfer of visa responsibilities from the State Department to the Justice Department, he said.

— Defended the Supreme Court as a great stabilizing influence and an essential part of the U. S. system of government. He conceded, however, that there were some parts of recent decisions on constitutional rights of individuals which, he said, each of us has very great trouble in understanding.

— Repeated his conviction that there would be no victor in a global war. He said he thinks so much about it that he finds himself repeating it almost in his sleep. He made this statement in answer to a question about whether he believes the Russians could develop a clean H-bomb and would use it in case of war. He said he hopes so, but added his firm conviction that there must not be another war because, as he put it, it is inescapable that military might has become capable of complete destruction of humanity, and civilization as it has developed on the North American continent.

Woman Dies at 116

CANOGA PARK, Calif. (UP) — Mrs. Juanita Carrillo, who had only been seriously ill once in her life, died here Tuesday at the age of 116.

Mrs. Carrillo's son, Juan Carrillo, 63, said his mother collapsed and died after asking for a drink of water.

Jet Hits Farm House; Pilot, Woman Killed

DERMOTT, Ark. (UP) — An Air Force jet training plane hurtled into a farm house near here Tuesday and exploded killing its pilot and an elderly woman who was feeding chickens behind the house.

The dead were identified as 2nd Lt. Donald G. Biedenbach, 25, New Baden, Ill., and Mrs. Slater C. Jones, 69, Bellaire, about four miles southeast of here.

The plane, a T33 jet trainer, was from the Greenville, Miss., Air Force Base, about 40 miles southeast of Dermott.

Witnesses said the jet made several passes apparently attempting to make a forced landing in a nearby cultivated field. They reported the plane caught fire and exploded just before plowing into the house.

The pilot ejected himself at a 45-degree angle from the cockpit at about treetop level. His body was found in an open cotton field about a half mile from the scene of the crash.

Mrs. Jones' husband was in the front room of the home when the crash occurred, but escaped injury.

Biedenbach is survived by his wife, Ann, and a son, David, who lived with him near Greenville, and his parents of New Baden.

Admits Burglaries By Two in Indiana

Marshall Mimms, who with Austin Jones is held in Saline county jail on charges of burglarizing the Town House cafe and Carter's service station at Eldorado last Saturday, has admitted the two committed three Indiana burglaries, Sheriff William T. Barrett said today.

Mr. Doom gave statistics of the lake capacity at the dinner meeting preceding the tour. The lake, he said, contains 300 acres under water with a capacity of a billion gallons of water.

The dam, he said, is 750 feet long at the base and 1,000 feet at the top and the deepest water is about 38 feet.

Mr. Doom stated the city would receive its best water supply if in the future it would build a pipeline from the water plant to the lake whereby water would flow by gravity direct to the plant. At the present time it must flow and be pumped from the creek into the reservoirs. Club members viewed the lake from various vantage points which will be increased in the future as more roads are built in the area.

Gene Neihaus was introduced as a new member at the meeting.

Of Arms and People

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

The disarmament talks now in progress in London are possibly the most earnest to be conducted in many years. But manifestly the task of saving the world from destruction by force is not the only compelling problem of the time.

The United Nations has just issued a new report placing the world's population at 2,777,000,000.
It is growing at 5,000 an hour and 43 million a year.

By the year 2000, a mere 43 years off, U. N. experts estimate that the earth's population will have doubled to a colossal 5.4 billion. America's total, projected at 220 million for 1975, will be well above that at the turn of the century.

Many factors are involved. Birth rates are up and death rates sharply down. People are living longer, healthier lives. Poverty is far from banished from the globe, but there is less of it than ever in the world's history.

The propulsive force of a multiplying humanity cannot be ignored by the world's leaders. The new millions to come must be fed and clothed and sheltered, and world society — politically, economically and socially — must be so constructed as to permit them to live together in reasonable accommodation with each other.

This is a planning assignment that calls for the best brains of every land on earth. The safer the world is made from war and sickness, the surer the monumental increase in numbers will be and the greater the need for energetic, resourceful, imaginative dealing with their problems.

Just the job of fitting America to serve and support another 50 million by 1975 is immense. All aside from the need for more food and other necessities, and more facilities of all kinds, we must face the fact that mounting numbers mean more friction and conflict.
And we must find ways of reducing or eliminating those explosive factors.

On a far vaster scale this is the world's problem in the next half century and beyond. People, not insects, are inheriting the earth.
We must learn to live with them in a spirit of accommodation the world has seen too little of in its long history. If we do not, having been saved from The Bomb may not be too helpful.

Rulings Against Obscenity by Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court Monday ruled against various forms of obscenity.

In separate decisions, the tribunal:

1. Upheld the constitutionality of the federal law and two state laws barring distribution of obscene printed matter.

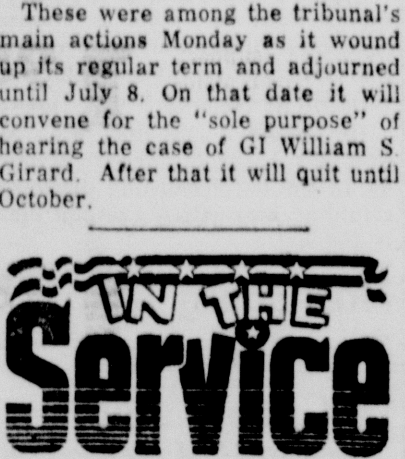

2. Upheld the validity of an "anti-strip tease" ordinance in Newark, N. J., once a bulwark of burlesque, forbidding nudity, illusion of nudity and suggestive actions in public performances.

The high court, in its rulings on distribution of books and other material, held that "obscenity is not... protected by the First Amendment," which guarantees free speech and freedom of the press.

"Sex and obscenity are not synonymous," the court emphasized in an opinion giving a learned lecture on the difference between the two. Backlog up this view the tribunal:

1. Upheld, 6-3, the federal law which bans sending obscene material through the mail.
2. Upheld, 7-2, an 87-year-old California law which makes it a crime to write, advertise or distribute indecent literature.

These were among the tribunal's main actions Monday as it wound up its regular term and adjourned until July 8. On that date it will convene for the "sole purpose" of hearing the case of GI William S. Girard. After that it will quit until October.

Seek to Eliminate Trouble Spots in Housing Projects

Steps are being taken to make the housing projects of the county better places in which to live. Walter Russell, chairman of the Saline County Housing authority, stated today.

"We realize that practically all the occupants of the six Saline county housing developments are desirable residents who cause no trouble whatsoever," he stated, "but occasionally an incident has arisen that has caused some embarrassment to the housing board, the employees and to a great many occupants."

"Steps are being taken," he continued, "to eliminate sources of trouble and it is our hope that there will be no repetition of such incidents as have occurred at the Dorrisville project the past couple of weeks."

The six county projects, two in Harrisburg, two in Carrier Mills, one in Eldorado and one in Galatia, are now under the supervision of a new executive director, Louie Conover of Harrisburg, and Mr. Russell said Mr. Conover is doing everything possible to make and keep all the projects places that the communities will be proud of.

Right now, he continued, there are seven regular employees of the authority, four from Harrisburg, one from Galatia, one from Carrier Mills and one from Eldorado.

Sentenced for Failure to Report For Induction

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—Donald E. File charged "The U. S. government is the devil itself" Tuesday as he was sentenced to 18 months in a federal prison for failure to report for army induction.

File, Nashville, Ill., claimed he is a conscientious objector. For two years, he has refused a Selective Service board order to report for induction.

File, a member of Jehovah's Witnesses, told the court the government was "compromising my belief."

He pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to heed the induction notice, and was sentenced in U. S. District Court here by Judge William G. Juergens.

Since he received the first draft notice, he has been employed at a salary of $82 a week at Lewin Metals Co., Monsanto.

The case was the first here in the last 18 months, according to Asst. U. S. Atty. Jack Morris.

Liberty Baptist W. M. S.
Meets At The Church

The Liberty Baptist W. M. S. met for its June Royal Service program recently. Mrs. Helen Roberts, president, opened the meeting and the group sang a hymn, followed by a prayer led by Mrs. Myrtle Frick. Following the reading of the minutes, Mrs. Irene Langford, community missions chairman, reported that there have been 24 visits made, 24 cards sent and 5 phone calls made by the members this month.

Mrs. Claudia Owen, in her presentation of the lesson, "The Fountain of Youth," read from the scripture, Mark 10:21, as a devotional theme for the evening.

Youth leaders from the W. M. U. Southern Baptist headquarters were represented by Mrs. Myrtle Frick, Mrs. Helen Roberts and Mrs. Ona Horton. Connie Pyles and Jackie Beal sang their organization's hymn, as G. A. girls.

Mrs. Langford, Y. W. A. leader, introduced three young women: Miss Dixie Owen with the topic, "Does God Need Me?" Miss Carolyn Sue Roberts with "The Call" and Miss Jane Wasson with "The College Girl's Attitude Toward Mission Call."

Mrs. Horton was R. A. organization leader for the meeting. Boys participating were Tommie Gibbs, Larry Morse, Roger Langford, Jimmie Owen and Kennv Roberts. They gave their watchword and recited their commission, explaining the meaning of Royal Ambassadors.

Mrs. Frick spoke of the "Sunbeams" and urged the women to become more active in promoting work among the young children. Mrs. Wanda Dudley presented the topic, "Other Youth In Our Churches." Mrs. Daisy Malone told the story of a young woman who felt called to become a missionary, and was prevented by her parents, whose failure was both to her and God's service.

The meeting was closed with a gathering at the altar by the group, to pledge their prayers and efforts toward the training of the youth. The meeting was then dismissed with a prayer led by Mrs. Roberts.

Others attending were Mrs. Vera Wasson, Mrs. Chloe Pyles, Mrs. Elva Powell, Mrs. Rebecca Mitchell and Mrs. Flo Johnson.

Chou Admits Executions In Red China

TOKYO (AP)—Chinese Communist Premier Chou En-lai said today one out of every six persons accused of "counter-revolutionary" activities by the Peiping government had been executed.

Chou did not mention the number actually executed but he left no doubt it was one of the largest blood baths in history. Western sources have placed the number of executions in the millions.

Chinese Communist leader Mao Tse-tung was quoted recently in Warsaw report as admitting that more than 800,000 died.

His admission lent weight to reports of trouble within Red China, climaxed recently by Mao's decision to take a softer line toward critics of the regime.

Mississippi is Near Flood Stage

By United Press

The Mississippi River, swelled by its flooded tributaries, climbed toward flood stage today, and at least 105 Minnesota families were forced to flee their homes.

New thunderstorms hit Minnesota Tuesday night, dumping one-third inch of rain at Minneapolis and adding to the flood conditions.

Other heavy rains swept Iowa, where Cedar Rapids and Mason City recorded up to one-half inch, and portions of the North Atlantic Coast region.

Albany, N. Y., got a half-inch deluge in a six-hour period, and Burlington, Vt., was swamped by a two-inch rainfall during a 12-hour period Tuesday.

About 65 families were evacuated from their homes Tuesday night south of St. Paul, Minn., when forecasters predicted the Mississippi would reach three feet above flood stage by Friday.

National Guardsmen were alerted to aid in other evacuations should they prove necessary.

Flora Voters Approve Airport Authority

FLORA, Ill. (AP)—Voters paved the way for construction of a modern airport here by approving creation of an airport authority Tuesday.

The proposal carried, 452-280. Creation of the authority qualifies the Flora area for more than $100,000 in state and federal funds.

State Chiefs Study Return Of Functions

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP)—The nation's governors appeared ready today to embrace President Eisenhower's search for ways to turn federal services back to the states despite widespread doubts about how fruitful it would be.

A resolution recommending at least a first step in this search was expected to go before the final, closed session of the annual governor's conference this afternoon.

A round-table discussion on natural resources preceded that session.

Eisenhower was described here as being in a "putup or shut up" mood about the proposal he unveiled in a speech before the governors Monday night. He urged them to join his administration in studying ways to give some federal functions and tax levies back to the states and suggested that the result should be an overall saving to the taxpayer.

The President will have a chance to restate his views to the Republican minority of the conference when the GOP governors visit him for lunch in the White House Thursday.

However, the resolutions committee of the conference was expected to recommend that a committee be appointed to study the President's proposal and to confer with administration officials about how it might be carried out.

While there was no apparent disposition to rebuff the President, there was widespread skepticism among the governors, particularly among Democrats, that anything would be accomplished.

Farm Bureau Urges Choice by Corn Growers

CHICAGO (AP)—The American Farm Bureau Federation proposed today that corn growers be given a choice between continuation of the present corn program and a one-year trial of a new program.

The Farm Bureau said the acreage allotment program has proved ineffective and a new approach is needed.

The proposal, based on recommendations of Farm Bureau leaders from the Corn Belt, calls for congressional authorization of a referendum late in December.

The proposed new corn program would provide:

—Price supports for the 1958 crop at 7 per cent of parity in the commercial area with no acreage allotments.

—Price supports for other feed grains—oats, barley, rye and grain sorghums—at levels determined by relative feeding values and the commercial corn area support price.

—A chance for corn and feed grain producers to participate in the acreage reserve program on a voluntary basis.

If a majority of producers voted for the alternative program, it should be effective for one year only, the Farm Bureau said.

In the 1956 corn referendum, 61.2 per cent of the farmers in the 24-state commercial corn area voted to get rid of acreage allotments. But the law requires a two-thirds vote, and the Farm Bureau said the "majority of corn farmers were denied the kind of program they had voted for."

The present corn program provides for restrictive acreage allotments and price supports ranging from 75 to 90 per cent.

Yanks, Dodgers Top Majors in Team Payrolls

WASHINGTON — It pays to be a Yankee but no one has to pull in his belt with the Dodgers, either.

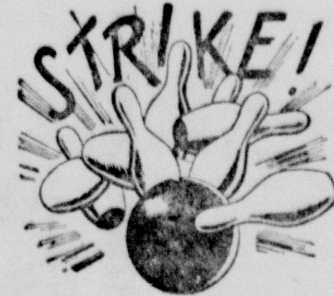

The Yankees had the largest payroll in professional baseball last year, having paid their players a total of $492,000, according to financial figures submitted to a house judiciary committee.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, however, paid the highest average salary—$18,880—to the 25 players on its roster. The Dodgers' entire payroll was $472,000.

The Yankees' 28 players were paid an average salary of $17,570, with Yogi Berra drawing the highest pay, $58,000.

Top National League salary was $75,000 and it apparently went to Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals. The individual players were not identified in the financial figures.

Slugging outfielder Ted Williams of the Red Sox has generally been regarded the top salaried man in the sport with a contract of $100,000 per year. However, some of Williams' pay hinges on a bonus arrangement.

Pennant Fever High in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS — Two fans were talking on the street.

"The Braves lost Adcock, the Phillies can't last, Cincy hasn't got the pitching, and the Dodgers just ain't the Dodgers anymore."

"Man," came the enthusiastic reply, "that means we got it wrapped up."

The pronoun "we" in this case means the red-hot St. Louis Cardinals and their thousands of re-born fans who have put the Redbirds above the weather in their everyday conversation.

There's no doubt about it, this town has the pennant fever.

The last Cardinal pennant was in 1946, but in the 21-year period, 1926-46 inclusive, the Cards won nine pennants and six World Series.

The latest upsurge in Cardinal fortunes comes as a result of six straight victorious series since Memorial Day, plus one break-even set with their old nemesis, the Brooklyn Dodgers. They have won 17 of 24 games this month.

Pack 'Em In
The Cardinals are two games ahead on the loss side in the close National League race that some predict will take only 90 games to win.

The fans are turning out to refurbish Busch Stadium — 50,000 more than at this time last year although threatening weather prevailed for most early games—and the players, a nice mixture of youth and age, have the confidence.

Stan (the $80,000 iron man) Musial is pasting the ball at a .359 clip including 16 homers and 54 runs batted in. Del Ennis, who had his usual bad start, is up to .265 and has knocked in 40 runs. Lead-off man Don Blasingame is .303 and Alvin Dark, at .306, is hit an' running 'em as good as ever.

Wally Moon has just snapped out of a slump in left and Ken Boyer, last year's all-star third baseman who had to make room in the line up for Eddie Kasko, has learned quickly the rules of centerfield. Hal Smith, hitting .301, is one of the best at catching the knuckle balls of Murry Dickson and Hoyt Wilhelm who has preserved five victories in a row.

The present rotation of the deep mound corps includes the sensational McDaniel bonus brothers, Lindy (7-3) and Von (2-0), Larry Jackson (9-3), Willard Schmidt (6-1), and Sam Jones (4-3).

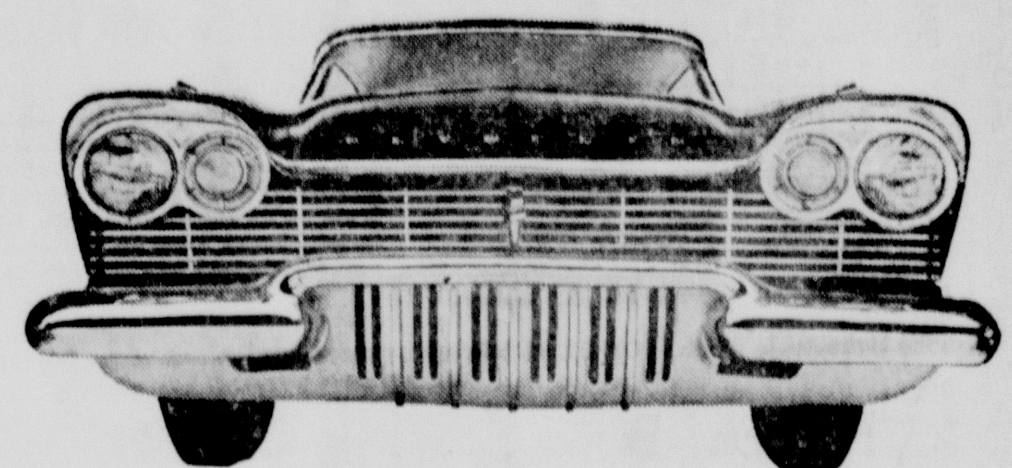

Oddly enough, two who had been counted upon highly, Vinegar Bend Mizell (1-5) and Herm Wehmeier (2-4), haven't been up to par. "But Wehmeier shows signs of coming out of it," Manager Fred Hutchinson said, "and Mizell has just had a rough time of it. It's just one of those things." Hutch added, indicating he believed Vinegar's luck could change just as easily.

Walt Dropo Bats White Sox To 2-1 Win Over Red Sox; Reds Defeat Giants, 3-2

By United Press

The White Sox have tried every one at first base but the batboy, so maybe it's only poetic justice that they're back on top again because of a guy who feels he should have been given the job in the first place.

His name is Walt Dropo, and chances are you've heard of him because they were comparing him with Jimmie Foxx and Hank Greenberg when he first arrived in the majors way back in 1949.

Somewhat he never quite made it "big," however, and with the White Sox he was low man on the totem pole among three other first basemen this spring. But Tuesday night it was his two-run homer in the seventh inning that broke up a scoreless pitching duel between Bob Keegan and Dave Sisler and gave the White Sox a 2-1 victory over the Red Sox that enabled them to take over the American League lead again from the Yankees by half a game.

In a way, it was vindication for the 6-foot-5 Dropo, who has been forced to sit around this season
while Jim Rivera, Dave Philley and Earl Torgeson were given a shot at the first base job. The home run was his ninth of the season, one more than he hit all last year.

Keegan held the Red Sox to six hits in snapping their six-game winning streak.

Cleveland registered its fourth victory in a row by crushing the Yankees, 11-2. Baltimore handed Kansas City its sixth straight defeat, 5-0, and Detroit rallied for three runs in the 10th inning to defeat Washington, 7-4.

Cincinnati climbed into a virtual tie for the National League lead with the Cardinals by beating the Giants, 3-2; Brooklyn blanked Milwaukee, 2-0, and Chicago climbed out of the cellar with a 5-3 triumph over Pittsburgh.

Ex-Dodger Billy Loes came through with a brilliant three-inning effort for the Orioles, retiring the first 15 batters in order. It was Loes' eighth victory against the Reds.

Ted Kluszewski's pinch single off Red Worthington with the bat es full and two out in the ninth boosted the Redlegs to within five percentage points of the Cardinals.

Brooks Lawrence gave up only four hits, including a homer to Danny O'Connell, in registering his eighth victory. Until the ninth Cincinnati's only two runs off Giants starter Ray Crone were the result of home runs by Smoky Burgess in the second inning and the fourth.

Duke Snider's 15th homer in the first inning was all the margin rookie Danny McDevitt of the Dodgers needed to beat Lew Burdette. Both pitchers gave up only four hits, the Dodgers adding an insurance run in the ninth on Snider's single, Johnny Logan's error and a single by Gino Cimoli.

Jack Littrell's two-run homer in the second inning put the Cubs in front of the Pirates to stay and Dale Long and Walt Moryn followed with circuit blows for Chicago. All three homers came at the expense of Bob Friend, who suffered his seventh defeat. Reliever Dave Hillman was the winning pitcher as the Cubs took over seventh place by eight percentage points over the Pirates.

Matter of FACT

Britannica Junior Encyclopedia

Pike are the swiftest swimmers of any fresh-water fish. They grow as large as four feet long and may weigh 50 pounds. The mouth is equipped with jaw teeth, plus rows of smaller teeth on the palate and tongue which may be flattened when swallowing. The well-known walleye is not a pike, but is actually a member of the perch family.

Fisherman Jumps Into Lake to Wrestle

With 22-Pound Fish

ELY, Minn., AP — Cyril Lusader of Chicago is not a man to be beaten by a fish.

While fishing from the dock at a lodge, Lusader hooked a big Northern. Just when Lusader reeled the fish near the dock, it made a lunge and snapped the line.

The fully dressed fisherman jumped into the lake, wrapped his arms around the big Northern and finally wrestled the 22-pound fish to shore.
